

Summer Reading assignments for Grade 8

Due date: by Friday, September 3, 2021

You will be reading two books. Use the suggested reading list to make your selections. Choose at least 1 book from the attached list.

For one of the books, choose one of the following projects:

1. Make an illustrated timeline of the events in the book
 - a. Be sure to give a brief explanation of the event
 - b. Include a few illustrations that relate to the events
 - c. Include at least 8 events
2. Write 5 diary/journal entries from the point of view of one of the characters
 - a. Include thoughts/feelings/experiences for that character
 - b. Each entry should be about 4-5 sentences, with details from the book
3. Create the front page of a newspaper, using information from the story
 - a. Be creative- give the newspaper a good title
 - b. Include a few key “news” stories based on the book and whatever else you wish
 - c. Make it all look like the front of a newspaper
4. Write a “story poem” about events/characters from the story- retell key details from the book in the form of a poem. Rhyme is up to you.

* For whichever project you choose, include the title and author of the book.

For the other book, write a book log

Be sure to include the title and author

 no need to print this. This assignment will be turned in through the 8th Grade Summer Work Classroom. Here is the code for that classroom:

myncn2r

On the 8th Grade Summer Work classroom, look for the ELA book log assignment and turn in the book log there.

1. Describe either your favorite scene/event or describe your favorite character- this should be written as a detailed paragraph.
2. Give your opinion of the book- did you like/dislike it? Why/why not?

8th Grade Summer Reading List 2021

Redwall Series (Book #1) by Brian Jacques

When the peaceful life of ancient Redwall Abbey is shattered by the arrival of the evil rat Cluny and his villainous hordes, Matthias, a young mouse, determines to find the legendary sword of Martin the Warrior which, he is convinced, will help Redwall's inhabitants destroy the enemy.

All American Boys By Jason Reynolds A 2016 Coretta Scott King Author Honor book, and recipient of the Walter Dean Myers Award for Outstanding Children's Literature. In this New York Times bestselling novel, two teens—one black, one white—grapple with the repercussions of a single violent act that leaves their school, their community, and, ultimately, the country bitterly divided by racial tension.

Embassy Row Series (3 books) by Ally Carter

This exciting new series focuses on Grace, who can best be described as a daredevil, an Army brat, and a rebel. She is also the only granddaughter of perhaps the most powerful ambassador in the world, and Grace has spent every summer of her childhood running across the roofs of Embassy Row. Now, at age sixteen, she's come back to stay—in order to solve the mystery of her mother's death.

Irena's Children: The Extraordinary Story of the Woman Who Saved 2,500 Children from the Warsaw Ghetto by Tilar J. Mazzeo This is the incredible story of a brave woman who would do anything to save the lives of innocent children during the world's bleakest times. This courageous woman risked her life to save innocent children from the Holocaust - a truly heroic tale of survival, resilience, and redemption.

Some Kind of Courage by Dan Gemeinhart Bears, bandits, and raging rapids can't stop Joseph from searching for what's left of his family—his beloved horse, Sarah—across the American Northwest frontier.

These are Rhode Island Middle School Book Award Winners or Nominees

Drowned City by Don Brown  The sadness of avoidable tragedy and the triumph of the human spirit come to life in this graphic novel about Hurricane Katrina, one of the worst natural disasters in US history.

Beautiful Blue World by Suzanne Lafleur  Sofarende is at war and the army is paying families well to recruit children, so if twelve-year-old Mathilde or her best friend Megs is chosen, they hope to help their families but fear they will be separated forever.

Turning 15 on the Road to Freedom: My Story of the 1965 Selma Voting Rights March by Lynda Blackmon Lowery.  Lowery's dogged participation as a teen in the fight for equal civil rights—as told to Leacock and Buckley (collaborators on Journeys for Freedom and other titles)—offers a gripping story told in conversational language.

Echo by Pam Munoz Ryan  Lost and alone in a forbidden forest, Otto meets three mysterious sisters and suddenly finds himself entwined in a puzzling quest involving a prophecy, a promise, and a harmonica. Decades later, Friedrich in Germany, Mike in Pennsylvania, and Ivy in California each, in turn, become interwoven when the very same harmonica lands in their lives.

Maya Lin: Thinking with Her Hands by Susan Goldman Rubin  Maya Lin, an artist's biography told through the different art forms in which she created some of the most important memorials in the United States.

Rising Water: The Story of the Thai Cave Rescue by Marc Aronson When a Thai youth soccer team went on a field trip to explore a local cave system they found themselves trapped with no hope of escape. Racing against time, an international team of divers made a story of survival out of what was nearly a tragedy. Non-Fiction.

Restart by Gordon Korman  Eighth grader Chase Andrews fell off of his roof and suffered total amnesia. When Chase goes back to school, he is torn between old football loyalties and new video club friends. Is once a bully always a bully or can he truly RESTART his life?

Game Changer by Tommy Greenwald  Teddy Youngblood gets injured and falls into a coma after football practice. Teddy's family, friends, and community wants to know if it was just an accident- or was it done on purpose? Readers are able to follow along with the characters as they unravel the mystery of what really happened on that fateful day. Realistic Fiction

Genesis Begins Again by Alicia Williams Genesis Anderson hates the way she looks. She prays to be beautiful – lighter – so that her life will get better. When her family is evicted and Genesis switches schools, she begins to learn more about her family's past and discover the strength, beauty, and power that was in her all along. Realistic Fiction.

Lifeboat12 by Susan Hoad  Kenneth is one of many children evacuated from London to escape the Blitz during WWII. But when the ship that was supposed to take the children to Canada is wrecked, there is a fight for survival that no one could have imagined. This story is based on true events. Novel in verse

A World Below by Wesley King  A ho-hum school field trip to the Carlsbad Caverns becomes a race to survive when an earthquake hits and separates the class underground. As the students look for a way out, they encounter dangers and a hidden kingdom in the world below. Action and adventure.

These two books are Audiobook recommended. It is fine to use Audiobook for summer reading.

Greetings from Witness Protection! by Jake Burt  In this funny, action packed page-turner, foster child Nick Demere is recruited by the US Marshals to help a family in witness protection hide in plain sight. Realistic fiction.

The Truth as Told By Mason Buttle by Leslie Connor  Mason Buttle has always been a bit of an outcast, but after his best friend was killed in Mason's own backyard, life has gone from bad to worse. With the odds stacked against him, Mason will have to fight back against a suspicious town with the only weapon he has: the truth. Realistic fiction
